

Library Luncheon

Twenty friends met to have lunch together at Le Garage in December .

German POWs in Maine: From Foe to Friend with Hank Lunn

Forty people attended Hank Lunn's German POW program in October. Lunn has been a resident of Camden, Maine since 1958 and a student of Maine history since his birth on a potato farm in Northern Maine.

For several years, Hank has been delivering "Living History" presentations to schools, historical societies, libraries, and community organizations. As a member of the Ancient Ones of Maine, Lunn participates in 1760-era Rendezvous in Maine and New England.

