Author talk—Wednesday, August 27 5:00—6:30 PM
Past and Present: Re-Tracing Paths Now Mostly Hidden
by Don Loprieno

Former columnist for Lincoln County News in Newcastle Maine, Don shares a wide range of topics from his articles. Spanning local through world-wide topics, this is an excellent example of his work. About the author: a former English teacher, Don Loprieno has maintained a lifelong interest in education and history, and, for nearly twenty years developed and implemented interpretive programs for public and school groups at two Revolutionary War historic sites in the lower Hudson Valley - New Windsor Cantonment and Stony Point Battlefield, which he also managed for nearly a decade.

Level Up at Your Library Summer Reading Wrap Up

What a great time we shared as we read together this year! 17 Adults, 28 Teens, and 45 Children participated in the fun-filled Reading, Game Nights and Challenges to earn raffle tickets that filled their Bingo sheets. Make sure you report in before the August 22, deadline. Raffle winners will be notified by email or telephone.

Seeing Your Library Account at Home is Available and Easy

Did you know that there is a link on our website to the Card Catalog where you can log into your account? Enter your barcode number without spaces and use the last four digits of your telephone number as your pin. From this login, you can see all of the items that you have checked out and can renew anything three times so long as they are not already overdue or on hold for another patron. This is the same login to use when you want to place a hold on any item in the combined collections. Placing a hold on items that do not belong to our collection (Interlibrary Loans) will arrive by van delivery and you will be notified by email when your items are ready for pick up! Visit www.wiscasset.lib.me.us to find this and more! If you do not have access to a computer, you can call us at 207-882-7161 and we will take care of it for you.

28 August -- The Women by Kristin Hannah (471 pgs) From the celebrated author of The Nightingale and The Four Winds comes Kristin Hannah's The Women—at once an intimate portrait of coming of age in a dangerous time and an epic tale of a nation divided.

Future Titles:

25 September -- The Master and Margarita by Mikhail Bulgakov (448 pgs)

23 October -- How to Read a Book by Monica Wood

tbd November -- Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands by Jorge Amado (553 pgs)

tbd December -- The Usual Desire to Kill by Camilla Barnes (256 pgs)

An unusually warm July evening found the Friends of Wiscasset Public Library's Cookbook Club enjoying the deck of a lovely home, enjoying plates laden with various small bites from many of the club's previous 12 featured cookbooks. A Forest Feast Mediterranean's stone fruit bruschetta, baked provolone, and burrata with olive tapenade were all much delighted in. The Pioneer Woman Cooks: Dinnertime's delicious sweet and sour meatballs were the meal's only non-vegetarian dish, and made a lovely complement to the tasty grilled corn salad from Half Baked Harvest. Barefoot in Paris' radish butter offered bright, indulgent bites, and the meal ended with pillowy cinnamon sugar donut holes, and cones of rich, fabulous lemon ricotta ice cream. As always, the conversation and camaraderie were as fantastic as the food.

August's cookbook is The Woks of Life by Bill, Judy, Sarah, & Kaitlin Leung. The Friends of Wiscasset Public Library's Cookbook Club meets on the second Wednesday of every month at 6pm; those interested in joining should email TheFriendsCook@gmail.com
