Maine Author's Talk at the Library

Wednesday, June 17 5:30—6:30 PM

Michael LaPierre shares his historic novel of Franklin Island Maine.

Drawing on his family's history with the lighthouse and the island, Michael brings the island to life

"This book not only captures an important part of our American history but also explores a patriotic and Christian influence while depicting what it is like to be a Maine "Islander" on this 12-acre parcel of land situated in the ominous, foreboding, and treacherous headwaters of Muscongus Bay!" (Amazon)

Upcoming Talks:

July 1 -Liz Brown, The Lives We Choose Series

July 15—Marita Fairfield, Jon Lewis & Allison Keeton

Join David and his guitar in the Fiction Room for a delightful musical break at the end of the week. Yes, David is back this year and ready to play.

Starting June 5th, 4:00 - 4:45 PM Kickoff the Weekend at the Library with Music on the last Friday of the month at 4:00 PM.
